LETTER OF THANKS

Thank you!

I was very honored and surprised to be awarded the “Person of Honor” at this year’s Warwick Old Home Days. My wife, Alana, my daughter, Katrina, and Colleen Paul did a very good job of pulling off this complete surprise. And it was a nice gesture to give the bouquet of flowers to Alana.
As anyone who has served the town, or any other volunteer organization knows, it can’t be done without the support, understanding, and assistance of the entire family.

My sincere thanks to everyone involved,

A. George Day, Jr.

Fall “Clean Sweep” Bulky Waste Recycling Day

The Franklin County Solid Waste District is holding its Fall “Clean Sweep” Bulky Waste Recycling Day on Saturday, October 22nd, from 9 a.m. to noon. The three drop-off sites are: the Buckland Recreation Facility at 66 Ashfield Rd. (Rt. 112 South), the Northfield Highway Garage at 49 Caldwell Rd., and the Whately Transfer Station at 73 Christian Lane.

Residents from any District town may bring bulky items such as tires, appliances, scrap metal, furniture, mattresses, carpeting, construction debris, computers, televisions, propane gas tanks, and other large items. Materials will be recycled whenever possible; disposal fees apply for most items.

Bulky Rigid Plastics will be collected for a special recycling program; $5 per load. Plastic items larger than 2.5 gallons are too bulky to be processed with municipal recycling, but can be collected separately for separate recycling. Acceptable items include 5-gallon pails, plastic lawn furniture, plastic trash barrels and recycling bins, laundry baskets, large plastic toys (no electronics), storage totes, milk crates and plastic pet carriers. Large yard toys (no batteries), plastic shelving and kiddie pools (rigid, not inflatable) will be accepted as long as they measure less than 4 feet in any direction. If longer than 4 feet, residents will have to dismantle or cut these items into smaller pieces before bringing them to the collection. Empty and clean rigid plastic plant pots and nursery trays will be accepted, but not the crinkly type that some 6-packs of seedlings come in. All bulky rigid plastic items must be empty, rinsed if needed, and free of batteries, soil, rocks, and liquids.

Unacceptable items for bulky rigid plastic recycling include Styrofoam, PVC pipe/tubing, vinyl siding, fencing, toolboxes, hoses of any kind, pesticide/chemical containers, and plastic bags and films.

Clean, dry textiles and books will be accepted for free. Textiles must be contained inside a sturdy plastic bag. 95% of all textiles can be recycled or reused; clothing or linens that are torn, stained, with missing buttons or broken zippers can be recycled into insulation. Acceptable items include CLEAN & DRY clothing, shoes, bras, purses; plus curtains, pillows, comforters, sheets, towels and stuffed animals in any condition (except moldy or wet!). Books can be of any condition except moldy or wet, and can be hardcover or paperback. No encyclopedias.

District residents are from the towns of Bernardston, Buckland, Charlemont, Colrain, Conway, Deerfield, Erving, Gill, Hawley, Heath, Leverett, Leyden, Montague, New Salem, Northfield, Orange, Rowe, Shelburne, Sunderland, Warwick, Wendell and Whately.

Residents and businesses do not need to pre-register for the collection. However, there are charges for most items. Disposal fees, cash only, will be collected during check-in at each site. A complete list of prices for the most common items will be available at participating town halls, town transfer stations, the District office at 50 Miles Street in Greenfield, and online at: www.franklincountywastedistrict.org/cleansweep.html.

Warwick Fireman’s BBQ

I’m doing something a little bit different this time and reviewing two of the town functions I enjoyed this year. First off, the Firemen did an excellent job putting together another great BBQ. And what was so special about this one? We got to sit in our new fire station! Yes, they had all the tables inside and the trucks outside. What an awesome job all those who erected the station did.

The food was excellent. I enjoyed the fact they had white meat this year and I was able to get a breast instead of the normal leg and thigh. Meat was cooked to perfection. My baked potato was good but some people said theirs was not fully cooked so they bought it home to cook it more. And the corn was excellent. And of course, you can’t have a BBQ without some watermelon.

It was an excellent setting and food to boot, so Kudos to the firemen. I highly recommend attending next year.

Warwick Old Home Days

If you didn’t make old home days this year, you missed out on a lot of fun. There were the usual town common vendors and food and a play area for kids. The horse and buggy rides and of course the parade. Our newest restaurant in town, The Barn Owl, was open for viewing only where you could sample some fine pastries and coffee. After the daily activities, the Metcalf Chapel put on awesome roast pork and bean supper. As usual, plenty of food served family style with platters of thick roast pork, bowls of homemade baked beans, bowls of homemade Cole slaw, rolls and butter. And it was topped off with delicious carrot cake. And if that wasn’t enough, an awesome one man show about Albert Einstein, sponsored by the Arts Council completed the evening.

That was all on day one. Day two was packed with a Fireman’s Muster, satellite dish toss, and the 3rd annual “Corregatta” Boat Race at Moore’s Pond. I think the whole town showed up for the boat race, haven’t seen that many people on the beach in years. The weather was perfect and everyone cheered on the cardboard boats. So mark your calendars for the last weekend in August of 2017 and come and enjoy all the festivities.

We have a wonderful group of people who put on these activities to make this a great little town, so come on out and enjoy all of them!! -Gloria Varno

MOORE’S POND BEACH COMMITTEE

Swimmers are still using the beach. There may be some trout in the pond. I expect the state to resume stocking rainbow trout when the water cools.

The Corregatta Boat Race was a great success. About 150 participants including those watching from the beach and others in kayaks, boats and canoes from the water.

Five boats competed in the Youth Division and three in the adult heat. Youth winners were Nick and Abbey Halloran in first place and in second place Sierra York. Sierra York was the fan favorite and Amelia Klaus the first to sink. Adults were Corina Halloran and Diane Ellis in first place, Scott Winakor in second and Al Klaus in third.

Water quality was great this year except on 5/31/16. Two days later on 6/2 it was clean. The beach was closed for swimming for those 2 days. The last test for the year was the Tuesday after Labor Day...

Looking ahead there will be a 50/50 raffle for Spring 2017 Ice Out. Choose day and time when a statutory hits the water. Usually around April 10 but ice out occured a month early this year. Watch for later Beach Notes and publicity for details.

Still time to enjoy the water and later the ice for fishing and skating.

THE GREEN CORNER

October is Ice Dam Prevention and Remediation Month in Warwick

Ice dams can cause a lot of damage to your house and you can prevent them. An ice dam is a buildup of ice along the edge of the roof of a building. Snow melting on a warm roof turns to water which freezes at the edge where the roof is cold, causing an ice dam. As the ice dam gets bigger, the water can back up under the shingles and go into the attic.

The best way to prevent ice dams is to have a cold roof. (For example, unheated buildings don’t get ice dams.) To keep the heat in the house from heating the roof, one needs to either insulate the roof or insulate and air seal the floor of the attic. Air sealing the attic means stopping the air flow from the living space into the attic.

October and November are good months to air seal and insulate your attic because it is cool enough to work in the attic and it’s not too late to get it done before winter. Also, the Warwick Library has an infrared camera available to help find leaks that need to be air sealed.

If you get an energy audit through MassSave, you can get a significant amount of air sealing and insulation work done for free, and get interest free loans on other similar work. There are even enhanced incentives for households with moderate or low-incomes. Give them a call at 866-527-7283 or check out their web site at - http://www.masssave.com/en/residential/home-energy-assessments/how-to-participate/homeowners-1-to-4-units

Another way to prevent ice dams is to shovel and rake the snow off your roof all winter. It could cost several hundred dollars to get a roof shoveled and is bad for the shingles. Some houses also use a kind of “heating tape” on the roof to melt the ice, but this method uses a significant amount of electricity and does not address the root cause, only the symptoms. Meanwhile you are still spending money keeping the attic warm for the mice. Air sealing and insulating makes sense.

The following is a letter I read to the PVRS School Committee at the August 2016 meeting during the “Citizens’ Concerns” portion of the meeting. Later in the meeting the committee discussed charter schools and Question 2 as part of the “old business” portion of the meeting. Many school committee members spoke about their perceptions and concerns about charter schools. The committee voted to support the initiative promoting a No vote on Question 2. David Young was the only dissenting vote.

August 25, 2016

Pioneer Valley Regional School Committee
Patricia Shearer, Chair
168 Main St., Suite 1 Northfield, MA 01360

Dear Members of the PVRS School Committee,

I am writing to you as a citizen concerned about ballot question 2, called the Massachusetts Authorization of Additional Charter Schools and Charter School Expansion Initiative, which will be before voters across the state this coming November. Question 2 would give our state board of education authority to approve 12 new charter schools or to expand existing charter schools, each year starting in January of 2017.

The Mass senate recently drafted legislation, called the RISE Act, that would address some of the needed charter school reforms; reforms such as: requiring community representation on boards, requiring public funding disclosures, providing increased reimbursements to small rural school districts who are disproportionately impacted by student transfers to charter schools, and by focusing the development of charters in areas of highest need. The House of Representatives did not take up this bill before this year’s session ended but Senate President Stan Rosenberg expects it to come up again in January. This is the first serious attempt by the legislature to take on needed charter school reform. It is my hope that before additional charter schools are approved in our state, we implement needed reforms that level the playing field for all schools and students in some way.

While I am a supporter of innovation and creative responses to student needs in all of education, I do not support this ballot initiative and hope that the PVRS school committee will also stand in opposition to it and consider sending the following message to our elected representatives and Governor:

As the Pioneer Valley Regional School Committee in Franklin County--the western and most rural part of Massachusetts--we send the following message to our elected representatives and Governor:

The towns in the Pioneer Valley Regional School District have a combined population of 6,652. (http://www.massbenchmarks.org/statedata/news.htm - Appendix A)

Rural communities like Northfield, Leyden, Bernardston, and Warwick do not have the student population base to provide a sustainable rural public school system and also have new, independent chartered schools drawing students from our limited pool of students. Rural schools have to have some ability to provide a district public school system.

Whatever the decision about charter schools and a cap, we need a charter school provision that protects the financial viability of our rural community schools and Massachusetts’ most rural regions.

Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,
Sue O’Reilly-McRae
PVRS parent and public school educator

Personal note: I'd like to thank everyone who worked so hard to make the WRC's First Annual Sock Hop a wildly fun success. If you missed it, you can mark your calendar for next year. It's our intention that a WRC Sock Hop should be a joyful kick-off to Old Home Days every year.

As the Director of the WRC, my goal is two-fold. First, I seek to provide activities that help us enjoy our lives here in good health. I am staunchly committed to activities being free for residents; no one should be prevented from participating due to budget. I am also committed to our activities being paid gigs for instructors/talent, etc. It's the only way to provide quality content. Second, I seek to stimulate our local economy. Organizing entertaining events that accomplish our first goal AND regularly bring in outside money into our town, will at least sustain the WRC in providing top notch activities, events and content. I'm optimistic that it could create jobs and small business opportunity! Our vision is strong, we have the ability and experience. What we don't have is the manpower. So Holly, Leanne and I are reaching out to solicit Warwickians willing to serve on the committee. We're looking for people willing to join in the fun and at the same time, be relied upon. We work hard with a focus on being professional but there are a lot of perks; like group wine & beer tastings when we select vendors, sampling food and scoping out venues. We have two areas of particular focus at the moment; developing the resident Activities program (perhaps things like pottery classes, hikes, workshops, fitness, etc) and the Events program (help from concept to execution.) Other areas in which we could use serious help are grant writing to MCC's, quality photography of events and website help! If you have an interest in working/playing with us, please email denyse@denysedar.com.

CPR (Cardio-Pulmonary Resuscitation)

CPR is essentially a way of mimicking heart and lung function until the heart and lungs can start functioning on their own. It is made up of chest compressions and two rescue breaths. Essentially this cycle keeps happening until a defibrillator (a device wherein a machine delivers an electric shock to the heart) or until the paramedics arrive on the scene.

Who is likely to need CPR? Principally anyone who suffers from heart disease. Strokes and heart attacks account for a large proportion of the deaths in America. If a person receives CPR until transported to a hospital, their odds of survival increase dramatically.

The Board of Health is considering asking Community 911, an organization which provides training in CPR to come and hold a class in town. A signup sheet will be posted at the library, which will indicate interest. No financial obligation will be incurred by signifying interest.

If you want to learn how to save the life of your loved one or a friend, sign up. Who knows? They could be the one saving your life.

In his book “The Structure of Scientific Revolutions”, Thomas Kuhn popularized the term “paradigm shift.” Kuhn said that paradigm shifts become necessary when the plausibility structure of the previous paradigm becomes so full of holes and patchwork “fixes” that a complete overhaul, which once looked utterly threatening, now appears as a lifeline.

Richard Rohr, Franciscan monk and teacher of Christian mysticism and meditation

Making a paradigm shift, no matter how necessary it is deemed, is a difficult and scary thing. It is usually opposed by many who don’t see the need or who are likely to lose something in the shift. Just looking back at history, we can see the upheaval caused by scientific discoveries that challenged long-held assumptions, such as; the earth is flat, or the earth is the center of the universe. Some who challenged these teachings were ostracized or even executed for their “heresies”.

More recent shifts include the abolition of slavery, which was one of the causes of the American Civil War, various expansions of voting rights, and labor and civil rights. Resistance still lingers over these shifts.

Many religious and secular organizations, including the UCC, are advocating another shift in our collective thinking. The so-called “Doctrine of Discovery”, first formulated in 1493, is the ideological underpinning of much of Western legal and social structure. In a recent “Eco-Justice Notes” blog, Rev Peter Sawtell presented the following:

In fourteen hundred-ninety-two, Columbus sailed the ocean blue.

In fourteen hundred ninety-three, the Catholic Pope made a decree.

The Papal Bull of 1493 granted to Spain any lands it might “discover” in the New World, and expressed Pope Alexander VI’s desire that the people of those lands be subjugated and brought to the Christian faith. Portugal didn’t like Spain getting all the goodies, so the very next day another Bull was issued splitting the territory between two far-reaching European Powers. These statements by the Pope—and an earlier one in 1452 dealing with all non-Christians throughout the world—are the basis for what is called the Doctrine of Discovery. All of this might be considered quaint details about long-ago history, except for the fact that the Doctrine of Discovery has profoundly shaped US and global culture. The Doctrine still has a powerful influence in US law—a 1823 decision of the US Supreme Court that affirmed the Doctrine of Discovery...laid the legal foundation for much of the nation’s “Indian policy”....In 2005, US Supreme Court Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg...cited the Doctrine of Discovery in an opinion denying a land claim by the Oneida people....

A cute internet graphic puts it succinctly: “Let’s celebrate Columbus Day by walking into someone’s home and telling them we live there now.” The Spanish and Portuguese—and later the English, French and Dutch—walked into lands full of people and with rich (if very different) cultures and claimed it for themselves. The original inhabitants became unwilling subjects of the colonial powers.”

The legacy of this Doctrine is still playing out in the treatment of indigenous people around the world. In our own country we see it underpinning the extraction of resources from Indian lands, and most recently in the treatment of indigenous protesters at the Dakota Access Pipeline site. This is reminiscent of the struggle here to stop the Northeast Direct Pipeline, but no private security guards and dogs were used here.

Jesus refused to enter into property rights disputes, but he did leave a strong commandment for his followers to live by; “Love each other as I have loved you.” His example saw all he encountered, regardless of sex, ethnicity, ability, or even religious backgrounds, as children of God. It’s time for the Doctrine of Discovery to be transformed. A beginning would be to celebrate Columbus Day as a time when one culture encountered another and work to find ways to embrace the richness of each and repair the damage done in the past and enrich the future.

In faith,

Dan

CLASSROOM BUZZ… THIS MONTH WE FEATURE NEWS FROM
GRADE 6: One of the most exciting things this year is that our science will be based on the 2016 Science, Technology/Engineering, and Math (STEM) Standards just adopted by our state. I am part of the PVRSD leadership team doing an in-depth training at Worcester Polytechnic Institute on the integration of STEM and the design process. We have already done a few STEM challenges such as building towers that bear weight from materials like paper or uncooked spaghetti.

Our biggest challenge of the year will be to design and build a GaGa pit on our playground. GaGa is a kinder, gentler dodgeball game from Israel that we learned about on our June trip to Cape Cod Sea Camps. It is played in an octagonal pit with wooden walls that stand about 4 feet high. We are currently researching sources and costs of materials and writing a grant that we hope will partially fund the project. Mr. John Passiglia and his PVRS Engineering Design students will help us with the project.

Ms. Lynn Hansell

and ART WORKS! This summer I read an article in the Boston Globe that reminded me of the amazing power of art! It was about a mother on Cape Cod who began painting inspirational messages on rocks and leaving them along the beach. From this small act, a movement was formed, the Kindness Rocks Project. (www.thekindnessrocksproject.com.) Our WCS students are starting their own Kindness Rocks garden! Each class found inspirational sayings and symbols to paint on rocks that they collected. Next week, we will put our rocks on display out in our garden!
